

Pomp and Pageantry
A Brief Photo History of the Camarillo White Horse Parade Attire

Thank you

Audra Seldeen, Lynn Preiss, Heide Eng, Priscilla Stuart-Galgas,

Nothing expresses the pomp and pageantry of an equestrian parade better than the sight of a well dressed horse and rider. It's all about style, flash and flair.

And no one does it better than our own Camarillo White Horses and their riders! They are experts at exhibiting elegance and refinement.

Here are just a few examples of their beautiful parade styles... from the early years to the present.

Beth Miller

Adolfo Camarillo Family and friends

The First Generation of Horses, Riders and Parade Attire

Adolfo Camarillo and Sultan

Santa Barbara 1924

Carmen Camarillo

Francisco "Pancho" Camarillo

"Bride and Groom" 1924 Santa Barbara

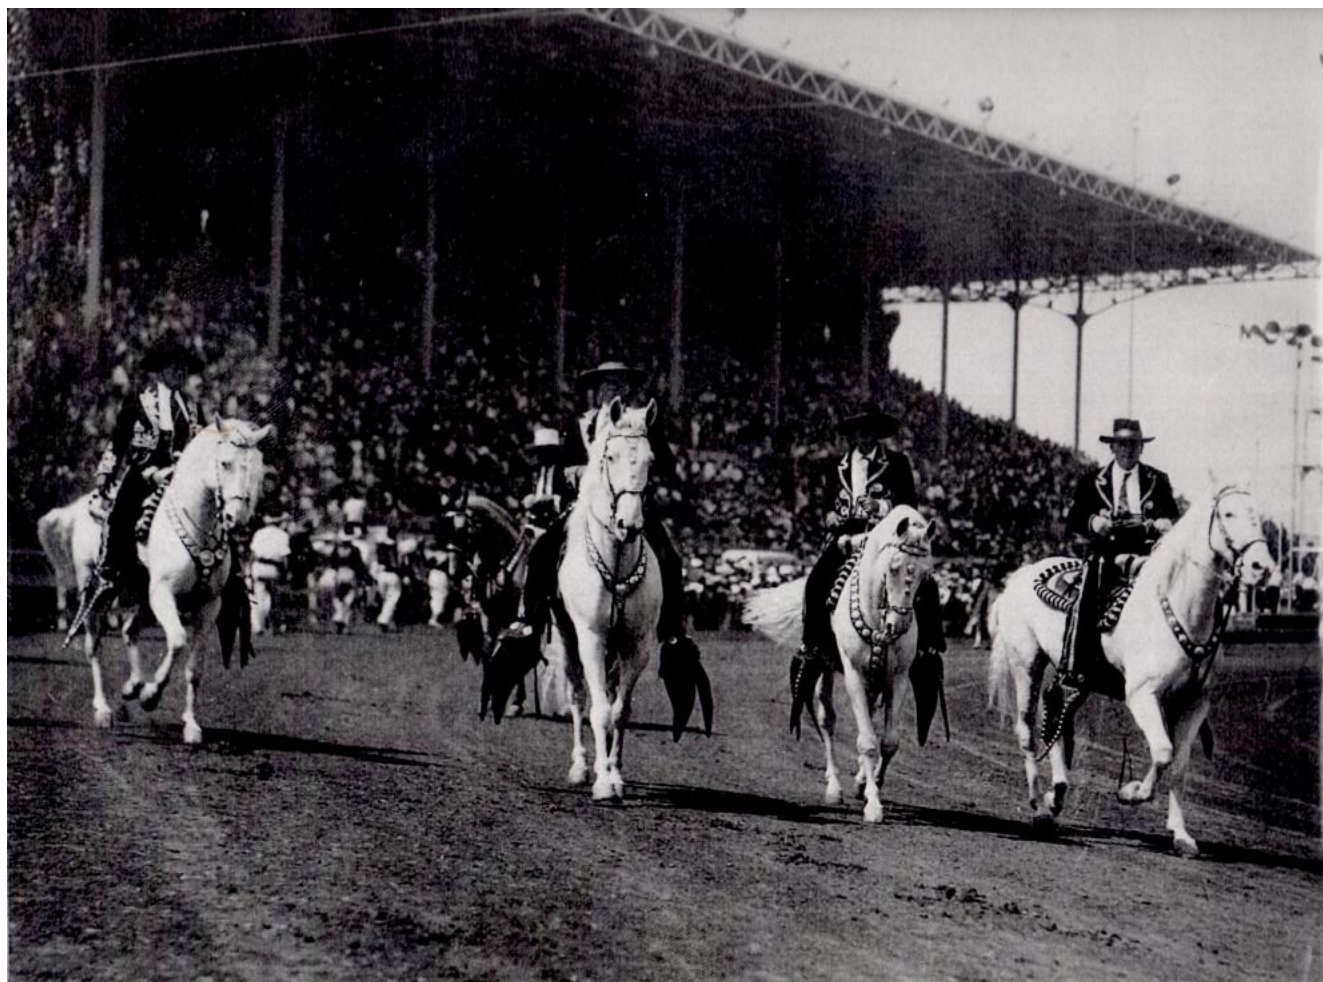

Carmen Camarillo and Sultan 1933

Santa Barbara Fiesta Parade

Carmen Camarillo and Sultan 1934

Pomona Fair 1936

*Left: Adolfo Camarillo and Diamante,
Hugo McGrath and Gavilan , Pancho Camarillo and Duke
Frederick Noble and Boracho*

Santa Barbara Fiesta

Circa 1937 - Santa Barbara Court House (start of Old Spanish Days fiesta parade) - Left to Right:
Carmen Camarillo - Gloria Petit Longo - Alfred Petit

Carmen Camarillo 1938

Costume for the Rose Parade crafted by Adele Flynn

1938

Adolfo's 74th Birthday with granddaughters

Carmelita FitzGerald Nicholson

OLD SPAIN — This group of riders on white Arabians from the Camarillo Ranch gave touch of old Spain to parade.
(Carmen Camarillo above) (Adolfo Camarillo above)

Santa Barbara Fiesta 1939

1939 - Side porch of the Camarillo House - Dressed for the Santa Barbara Fiesta parade - L-R - Camen Camarillo and her nieces, Rosita Petit (her 1st time in this parade), and Gloria Petit.

Colorized Photos

1940s

Adolfo Camarillo on Diamante, and Carmen Camarillo on Duke

Carmen Camarillo and Adolfo Camarillo

Adolfo Camarillo, Carmen Camarillo and Pancho Camarillo

Yellow Parade Attire
Santa Barbara Fiesta 1947

Rose Parade

1951

Santa Barbara Fiesta

1951

1965 – Santa Barbara Old Spanish Days fiesta – L-R: Mrs. Leon Fisher – Mrs. Harold Parker (Francisca “Paquita” Burket Parker) – Mrs. Roy Jones (Carmen Camarillo Jones) – Mrs. William Clarke (Benice Clark) – Mrs. J. Elton Gill

1965

Circa 1970's – L-R: Ynez Parker LaDow – Cathie Ferro – Carmen Camarillo Jones – Francisca “Paquita” Burket Parker
[said to be Camarillo parade]

Santa Barbara Fiesta

Carmen Camarillo with Adolfo's great-granddaughters 1975

Kerry FitzGerald and Diamante

Adolfo's great-granddaughter

Santa Barbara Fiesta 1985

Santa Barbara Fiesta - Identification believed to be (L-R): Victoria Nicholson - Laura McAvoy - Francisca 'Paquita' Burket Parker - 4th is unknown - Ynez Parker LaDow

Above: end right: Ynez Parker LaDow, Adolfo's great-granddaughter, participated in the 1970s- 1980s and later with the Camarillo White Horse Association.

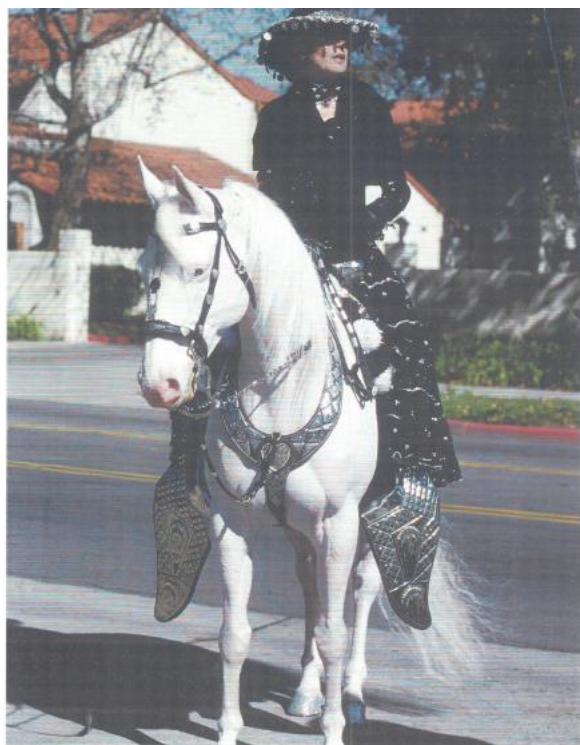

Santa Barbara Fiesta

1986

The Camarillo White Horse Association
A New Era of Riders and Parade Attire

Priscilla Stuart-Galgas and Tanya Langkopf
Costume Designers

The Beginning of the Camarillo White Horse Association

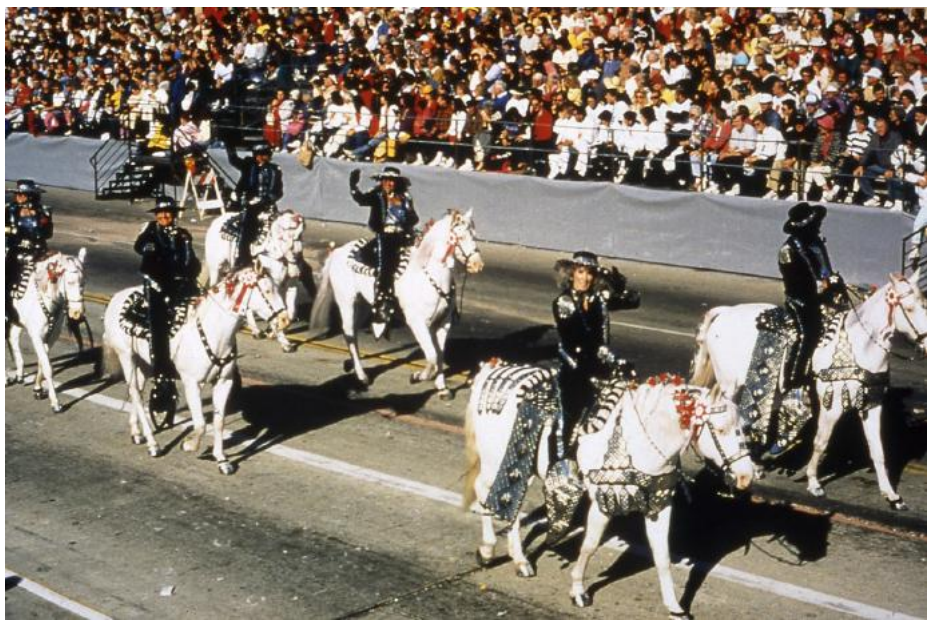

Black Tuxedo 2003 St. Patrick's Day Parade

Jay Moreno and Audra Seldeen

Camarillo Fiesta 1992

Rose Parade 2000

Circa 1997

George Galgas

Camarillo White Horse Association
with
Descendants of Adolfo Camarillo
Some of Today's Generation of Riders and Parade Attire

Camarillo descendants

*Left to right Ryan Parker (Adolfo's great-great grandson) and Destello
 Harold Parker (Adolfo's great-grandson) and Suerte 2016*

Alyssa Marie Parker VanOver
Adolfo's great-great granddaughter 2015

Carmella La Dow
Adolfo's great-great granddaughter
and Zamarillo
The popular red dresses were lost in the 2017 Thomas Fire.

*Heide Eng and Carmelita
Camarillo White Horse Association*

*Jay Moreno wearing current red shirt and black jeans parade attire .
He was trained by Meliton Ortiz and has been part of the last two eras of the Camarillo White Horse Association.*

Current Parade Attire :

Red Shirt and Black Jeans

Red Skirt and Top with Black Hat

White Shirt and Black Pants

Red Dress

Los Angeles circa 2007
Camarillo White Horse Association
Parade Attire: White shirt and black pants

*Barbara Black's daughter and Brillante II
Camarillo White Horse Association*

*One of the newest parade dresses:
Red Dress*

Color is deeper red than parade attire from the past.

Past and Current Designs Ride Together

Ventura County Fair Parade

Circa late 1990s/early 2000s

Grand Marshal Laura McAvoy and Diamante

She is wearing the same outfit she wore in the 1970s when she rode with the Camarillos.

Meliton Ortiz and Pancho

He learned about horses directly from Adolfo and had been active with all eras of parade riders. Photographed wearing the current popular red shirt and black jeans attire.